

Freight Forwarders & Customs Brokers Liability Claim Form

Under no circumstances must the policyholder admit liability either verbally or in writing. It is important that the claim is reported immediately (& no later than 1 month after the incident/event) in order that your insurers can undertake all necessary actions to mitigate liability. Late notification of a claim or an event likely to give rise to a claim may impact coverage under the policy.

Where relevant, please encourage your customer to report cargo damage/losses to their Marine Cargo insurers without delay. This will provide their insurers with an opportunity to survey the damage and advise if their policy will respond to any portion of the loss.

We also recommend that you send an "Intent to Claim" to your contracting parties to put them on notice of the incident.

Do not appoint legal representation without the prior consent of insurers.
